What is excluded in our services

- Gas pipes/ Central heating pipes – This is the customers responsibility to ensure all pipes are removed from within the builders opening before work has started.
- Decoration Works – Upon the completion of plastering you will need to let this dry and then white wash the area before repainting.
- Electrical Works – We do not undertake any electrical works, we will advise you during our site survey if we see anything that will need to be removed, please note cables are sometimes buried within the wall and cannot be seen until the knockout has started.
- Carpentry – During our site survey it may be mentioned that the skirting boards or cornice may need to removed.
- Hired Access – Our site survey will determine whether scaffolding or a cherry picker will be required on the day of installation. We will inform you of the cost involved.
- Planning Consents – it is the clients responsibility to confirm whether planning consent is required for your installation.

Further Information

- Chimney Sweep – Please ensure your chimney is swept prior to installation.
- Blocked Chambers – if the flue liner cannot be installed due to debris or restrictions within the chamber there is an additional fee of £100 + Vat per hour. Decoration work may be required
- Furnishings – We ask that the room is clear of any small, soft , fragile furnishings our team will ensure to protect anything left within the room with dust sheets.
- Dust – Knockouts are dusty and do have soot stuck within. Our team takes no liability for any damaged caused by dust & soot.
- Hearths & Surrounds – These are installed level, this can create unexpected gaps between the bottom of the hearths and existing floor. This will require the attention of a floorlayer.

1. Price and payment

- 1.1. Payment of the Price (inclusive of VAT, if applicable, or any other sales tax, carriage, freight, postage or insurance costs) shall be made to the Supplier in two transactions. On placement of the order a 50% deposit is payable, the remaining balance is due on completion of the installation. In certain circumstances, at the discretion of the Supplier, the deposit will be calculated differently, this is particularly the case for made to order items.
- 1.2. Any cancellations by the Customer after acceptance of a quote will result in a charge of 25% of the total value of the good(s). This will either be deducted from the deposit payment, if one has been paid, or an invoice will be raised for immediate payment. The cancellation charge reflects the costs associated with terminating the contractual arrangement we will have entered into with our supplier and the administration costs incurred on your behalf. In each case 25% is considered and represents a genuine pre-estimate of our loss should you breach your contract.
- 1.3. If a change to the agreed installation date is made by the Customer within 7 days of the installation date the Customer shall be liable for the installation charge
